

North Carolina Train Host Association

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is the North Carolina Train Host Association?

A: The North Carolina Train Host Association is an organization that serves as goodwill ambassadors for the North Carolina Department of Transportation within train stations served by state-supported trains and on board state-supported passenger trains.

Q: What is the difference between Train Hosts and Station Hosts?

A: Train Hosts serve by riding state-supported passenger trains. Station Hosts serve only in the train stations served by state-supported trains.

Q: On which trains do hosts serve?

A: Train hosts serve on the state-owned Piedmont (Train 73, Train 74, Train 75 and Train 76) and the state-supported Carolinian (Train 79 and Train 80).

Q: What are the primary duties of Train Hosts?

A: Train hosts promote patronage on NC By Train; assist passengers with travel questions and information; assist train crew in duties as requested by them; and promote rail safety.

Q: What are the primary duties of Station Hosts?

A: Station hosts primarily serve the Greensboro, Raleigh and Charlotte train stations assisting passengers with travel questions and information prior to boarding the train; assist NCDOT Station Attendants or Amtrak Station Agent; and promote rail safety.

Q: Do Train/Station Hosts have to reside in North Carolina?

A: Hosts must reside in North Carolina, South Carolina or Virginia.

Q: Is there an age requirement to be a train or station host?

A: Hosts must be 21 years of age or older. There is no maximum age limit, but hosts must be physically able to board, detrain, and move safely through the train without assistance.

Q: Do Train Hosts ride Amtrak for free?

A: Using their ID badges, hosts ride free in North Carolina while on duty. There is no free travel on Amtrak other than to perform host duties.

Q: What is the time commitment?

A: Train Hosts are required to make at least one hosting trip every 60 days. Train Hosts spend an average of 14 hours or longer onboard the train. Station Hosts must provide at least two station services every 30 days. Station Hosts spend an average of 2 hours in the train stations.

Q: How do you become a train host?

A: If you are interested in becoming a Train or Station Host, contact the Gene Kirkland, Host Training Coordinator at (919) 832-2113 or the NC Department of Transportation at (919) 707-4700.

North Carolina Train Host Association

Train Host Job Description

North Carolina Train Hosts serve as goodwill ambassadors for the NCDOT within train stations served by state-supported trains and on board state-supported passenger trains. Train Hosts promote patronage of NC By Train; assist passengers with travel questions and information; to assist train crews in duties as requested by them; and to promote rail safety.

Specific duties/ responsibilities:

1. Schedule at least one hosting trip every 60 days with the Host Dispatcher. Do not board a train without being assigned by the appropriate dispatcher.
2. Present a neat and uniformed appearance at all times while on duty. Men should wear a suit or sport coat and slacks, shirt of any color, a vest and a necktie. A coat is worn except in extremely hot weather. Women may wear a skirt or pants, a blouse of any color, a vest and a scarf. Hats and visors are optional. Shorts are not to be worn by hosts while on duty. For safety, comfortable low-heeled, closed-toe shoes are to be worn for ease in crossing from one coach to another. Host ID badges should be worn at all times while hosting on the Carolinian and Piedmont and should not be used to board any other Amtrak trains. The NCDOT and the Host Association will provide vests, neckties, scarves, hats, visors and ID badges.
3. Complete a "Passenger On-Board" form for each leg of the trip (north and south). The yellow copy should be given to the NCDOT Station Attendant or Amtrak Station Agent at the boarding station. The white copy should be given to the conductor onboard the train.
4. Talk to passengers, answer questions about train schedules, ground transportation, area attractions and points of interest on the train and in the boarding stations. Be pleasant at all times, even if there are circumstances when it is not easy to be so inclined.
5. Distribute train schedules, city brochures and other appropriate literature, as requested by the passenger.
6. Assist passengers with disabilities as requested by NCDOT or Amtrak personnel. Do not handle or move passengers in wheelchairs.
7. Do not handle baggage; this is the responsibility of the conductors.
8. Complete and submit a trip report for each leg of the trip (north and south). Trip reports may be submitted by mail or online.
9. Other duties as assigned by NCDOT or Amtrak personnel, which may require bending, stooping, standing and climbing.
